

Membership offer for Blended Learning Consortium

To help support the work of the Consortium and to provide a route to accreditation for staff whose role involves Learning Technology, we are offering any current members a special offer to become Organisational Members of the Association for Learning Technology (ALT).

By joining ALT you and all your staff are entitled to:

- Subscription to the ALT news digest and option to submit content
- Access to the ALT Members only discussion list
- Free access to ALT's online events and live participation
- Discounted access to ALT's face-to-face events including the Annual Conference
- Free access to ALT publications including the #altc blog, journal and occasional publications
- Opportunities to contribute to policy work and member surveys
- Options to create and run Special and Regional Interest Groups

You will also have the right to:

1. Be represented on the ALT Policy Board
2. Vote for elections of trustees and officers at the annual general meeting
3. Stand for election as a trustee or officer
4. Express an interest in membership of ALT committees

Information about ALT and membership benefits is available online at <https://www.alt.ac.uk/membership/membership-benefits> or you can request a free information pack by email to joinALT@alt.ac.uk.

Special Organisational Membership + CMALT offer:

We offer a 20% discount on Organisational Membership of ALT and 20% on registration fees for CMALT for groups of 2 or more. For example, a medium-sized college joining and registering 2 members of staff for CMALT would usually pay £806 but will now only pay £645. This offer remains open to current Consortium members until 31 November 2016. To find out more and to take advantage of this offer, please email thomas.palmer@alt.ac.uk or call 01865 484 125.